A doodle is a drawing made while a person's attention is otherwise occupied. Doodles are simple drawings that can have concrete representational meaning or may just be composed of random and abstract lines, generally without ever lifting the drawing device from the paper, in which case it is usually called a "scribble".. Doodling and scribbling are most often associated with young children and ...

Etymology. The word diary comes from the Latin diarium ("daily allowance," from dies "day"). The word journal comes from the same root (diurnus "of the day") through Old French jurnal (modern French for day is jour).. The earliest use of the word refers to a book in which a daily record was written was in Ben Jonson's comedy Volpone in 1605.. History. The oldest extant diaries come from Middle ...
